"BIRTH OF A NATION" GREAT SPECTACLE

PACKED HOUSE SAW FIRST PER-FORMANCE AT THE PALACE
LAST NIGHT. MOST AMAZING SPECTACLE EVER PRODUCED.

The Palace theatre was packed last night to witness the initial performance of "The Birth of a Nation," and from the time the first flash of light was thrown upon the screen, and the magnificent orchestra took up the incidental music until the last scene was portrayed, the audience was held spellbound, and never was a more appreciative one assembled in this city. To attempt to describe "The Birth of a Nation," is beyond the ken of ordinary individuals, indescribable would come as near to fitting the subject as any one word in the vocabulary. It deals with a subject that is familiar to thousands who are still living and who were participants in the stirring events portrayed, and is equally familiar to casual students of American history. Yet the stupendous scale upon which it is produced, is astounding.

Those who miss seeing this magnificent spectacle while in this city, will miss something the like of which may never be shown here again. Every person should see it, it is instructive and inspiring, filled with a sprinkling of smiles and oceans of tears, but in the end makes one glad that he or she is an American citizen. The nation owes a debt of gratitude to D. W. Griffith for his stupendous conception.

"Queen of Underworld" Killed.
Tulsa, Okla., April 18.—Rose Mc-Donald, queen of the red light district, died Sunday afternoon in a hospital here, following a fight in which she death by gunshot wound inflicted with felonious intent to murder. A. L. Coy is held without bond in the county jail pending a preliminary examination.

Cleburne, Tex., April 18.—A crew on a Santa Fe freight train found the body of brakeman A. A. Shafer alongside the track near Blum Monday, and notified his brother at Temple. Shafer left here on extra No.

Clears Arnold Case.
Cranston, R. I., April 18.—The mystery of the disappearance more than five years ago of Miss Dorothy Arnold, member of a wealthy New York family, may be solved by the purported confession of Edward Glen-orris, an inmate of the state prison here, giving details of her burial in the cellar of a house outside West Point, N. Y. The young woman had died in the house, he said, after being removed in an unconscious condition
